Dec. 1 deadline

ASC ballots mailed

By TOM CONRAD

ASC Committee Election Ballots To Be Required By December 1 - All known eligible producers have been mailed a ballot for voting in the community committee elections and it must be returned by December 1, 1980.

You are urged to vote for the farmers of your choice to serve for the coming year.

The instructions for voting are printed on the ballot but you are reminded to vote for no more than three candidates, including write-ins, and to sign the certification on the envelope identified by the red arrow. Your ballot cannot be counted if the certification is not signed.

If you believe that you are eligible but did not receive a ballot, you may stop by the ASCS office. If it is determined that you are eligible, your name will be added to the eligible voters list and you will be given a ballot.

If you know of an eligible voter who did not receive a ballot, please contact this office to obtain an answer.

We also have a copy of the Regulations Governing ASC County and Community Committeemen, which is available for your review. The County ASC Committee decides questions on election procedures and on eligibility to vote or hold office. Such decisions may be appealed to the State ASC Committee.

Remember, the voted ballots must be mailed or returned to the ASCS office in person by no later than December 1, 1980.

The County Convention to elect a member to serve on the County Committee will be held in the ASCS office at 9:30 a.m. on December 11, 1980. The convention will be open to the public.

Fire-Cured Tobacco

There are some marketing cards that were not mailed to producers. If you are one of these producers, you will need to stop by the ASCS office to pick up your card. The reason for not mailing the card will be explained at the time the card is picked up.

The area markets will open on December 2 and producers are reminded that when they are finished marketing their tobacco to please return their cards to the ASCS office.

Participates in fashion show

Dee Ann Wooten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wooten of Appomattox is presently attending Bauder Fashion College in Atlanta, Georgia as a senior. Dee Ann is a Fashion Merchandising major.

Some of her classes for the 1980-81 school term are, Business Law, Management, Advertising, Survey of Art, Communications, Speciality Retail, Merchandise Planning and Data Processing. She is also a candidate for Sigma Lamda Chi, the school's sorority and honor society in which you have to have a 3.7 average to be accepted.

Among her studies at Bauder her extra curricular activities include, holding the office of president, for the second year, of the Fashion Merchandising club. This is the largest club the college offers. She is an executive board member for the student government. Along with these activities and many others such as fashion shows, Dee Ann is employed at Lenox Square working for Zachry. This is Atlanta's leading men's store. She has planned to do her internship in Atlanta, Georgia with the Hart Shaftner & Marx Company.

Internship is on-the-job training for two-year students. The Internship Program offers students the opportunity to put into practice the knowledge they have gained thus far, and to experience first-hand the business and professional world prior to graduation. Students receive evaluations of their internship performance, and this evaluation serves as a valuable aid for the Director of Placement in assisting the student for permanent placement. The fashion Merchandising seniors serve their internships from November 29 through January the 3. This is an educational experience as well as a profitable one. Dee Ann has been with Zachry since February of last school term. She will further inhance her education by continuing to stay with this company.

Dee Ann's career objective is to go into management and to someday own her own retail establishment.

She has been involved in many fashion shows while in Atlanta. Among these she has modeled for the Atlanta Appeal Mart amongest a crowd of 9,000 or more buyers and merchants from the entire east coast. This was the first time a Bauder girl has gotten a part in this show. It is also one of her highest paying jobs. It pays anywhere from $60.00 to $100.00 an hour. Dee Ann also has to her credit besides working for Zachry and the Atlanta Appeal Mart, modeling for local malls in Atlanta and working for Saks Fifth Avenue and doing luncheon fashion shows for Rich's, one of Atlanta's main department stores.

We here a Bauder are proud of Dee Ann and know that her career is off to a flying success. We congratulate her and know you in her hometown do also.

Public enjoys education week at Pamplin

The public was invited to visit Pamplin Elementary School during American Edueation Week, Nov. 16-22. Open House was held Wednesday, Nov. 19.

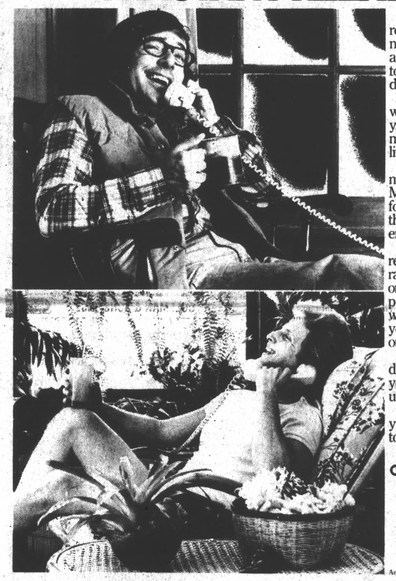
Jannie L. Bringman received the associate of science degree from the Division of Basic and Career Studies during the Nov. 19 program. In all, 299 were awarded diplomas.

WITH CONTINENTAL, THERE'S NO SUCH THING AS A DISTANT RELATIVE.



Your third cousin twice removed may be in California. But he's as close to you as your family right here in town. When you call long distance.

And if you dial direct without operator assistance, you won't have to spend much money to spend a little time with him.

For example, a three-minute call from Lewiston, Maine to Bakersfield, California will cost you no more than $1.30, excluding federal and local taxes.

And those are just our regular 8 A.M. to 5 P.M. rates. If you call during one of our bargain calling periods (weekends and weeknights after 5 P.M.) you can save up to 60% off our regular rates.

So if there's too much distance between you and your favorite relatives, pick up your phone.

And let Continental bring your family a little closer together.

Lisa V. Moore

For 4-H work

Local youths honored

Five central Virginia area young people have won top honors for outstanding work in their 1980 4-H projects.

David Caldwell, 18, and Lisa V. Moore, 17, both of Appomattox; Kathryn Jamerson, 19, Dillwyn, and Janet Mae Coleman, 18, Campbell, all have won expense-paid trips to the 59th National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3 - Dec. 4. Allen B. Smith, 17, Appomattox, received a $75 U. S. Savings Bond.

Caldwell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Caldwell excelled in the public speaking program supported by Union Oil Company of California. A freshman at James Madison University majoring in business administration, Caldwell says his training in public speaking will be a great asset. He has won numerous public speaking competitions across the country and has several trophies, ribbons and certificates.

Moore, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cluade Allan Moore, took top state honors in the achievement program, supported by Ford Motor Company Fund. A freshman at Salem College, Winston-Salem, N.C., she is majoring in Home Economics, and Interior Design.

Jamerson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Jamerson, excelled in the consumer education program sponsored by Montgomery Ward and Company. Jamerson, who recently completed practical nursing studies, says her 4-H experiences at a local nursing home encouraged her to go into the nursing field.

Coleman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon U. Hunter Coleman Jr., Rustburg, excelled in the food preservation program sponsored by Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation. She is a graduate of Rustburg High School and plans a career in Data Processing.

Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith, excelled in the gardening program supported by Ortho Divison, Chevron Chemical Company. A senior at Appomattox County High School, he plans a career in business administration.

Winners were selected by the Cooperative Extension Service. Awards were arranged by National 4-H Council.

Teachers get P.E. instruction

Physical Education instruction was the emphasis for the workshop held for teachers of grades 3 through 6 on November 6, 1980 at Appomattox Elementary School. Teachers from Appomattox Elementary and Pamplin Elementary Schools participated in the meeting that was directed by Del Moser, Physical Education Supervisor, State Department of Education.

Mr. Moser taught teachers how to organize their classroom for physical education and demonstrated activities appropriate for students in grades 3 through 6.

The appropriateness of this inservice was augmented by the recent acquisition of many types of physical education equipment.
